No. 15-60669      NLRB v. VCNCL, L.L.C.
USDC No. 15-CA-144945

Dear Mr. Davies,

On July 25, 2016, we received the Amended Bill of Costs event electronically filed by Intervenor Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Union.

Counsel is hereby advised that when the intention of an Amended Bill of Costs event is to replace the original bill of costs, a motion to withdraw the original bill of costs is required. A motion to withdraw the original bill of costs was not filed in this instance. Hence, we are taking no action on this Amended Bill of Costs event.

However, in light of the fact that the Court had not yet processed the original bill of costs event, before this Amended Bill of Costs event was filed, the Court has taken the liberty of using the correct image from the Amended Bill of Costs event, to replace the original bill of costs event image.

That said, the original bill of costs image, wherein the line that read "The Clerk is requested to tax the following costs against 'Appellant,'" has been removed. The image now correctly reads "...tax the following costs against 'Respondent VCNCL, L.L.C.'"

Therefore, since the Court has already replaced the original bill of costs image, an Amended Bill of Costs event and motion to withdraw the original bill of costs are no longer necessary.

Further, for future reference, if counsel needs to make a correction to a docket event and/or image attached thereto, or has a filing or procedural question, please contact the Court for direction.

Note: Most corrections, such as this one, can be accomplished by the Court authorizing counsel to send the corrected document via e-mail, and then the Court replacing the original image (which the Court has done in this instance).

Sincerely,

LYLE W. CAYCE, Clerk
